READ • read carefully — you will answer questions about this

- 1 One sunny morning, a tiny spider woke up on a green leaf. She felt happy and thankful for a new day. The spider looked around the garden and saw dewdrops sparkling on flowers. She wanted to make something beautiful too.
- 2 The little spider started to spin. She pulled silk from deep inside herself and began to weave. Thread by thread, the web grew bigger. Back and forth, round and round, she worked carefully. Soon a perfect web hung between two branches.
- 3 The morning sun shone through the web. It sparkled like diamonds! The spider felt proud. She had made something wonderful with her own gift. Other creatures came to see the beautiful web. The spider knew that God had given her a special talent to share with the world.
