

READ & RECALL

Q3 • Wk1

Grade 2

The Lost Coins

HONESTY

Honesty means doing the right thing even when no one is watching.

preceptor reads aloud

DO THIS

► Read the passage carefully.

READ • read carefully — you will answer questions about this

- 1 Marcus was walking home from school. He looked down and saw five shiny coins on the sidewalk. No one was around. Marcus could keep the coins and buy candy. But he knew the coins were not his.
- 2 Marcus thought about what was right. He picked up the coins and walked to the store nearby. The store owner was behind the counter. Marcus showed her the coins. "I found these outside," he said. "Are they yours?"
- 3 The store owner smiled. "No, they are not mine. But I know who they belong to," she said. She called Mrs. Lee, who worked at the shop next door. Mrs. Lee came right away. Her face was so happy. "I lost those coins this morning!" she said. She gave Marcus a big hug and thanked him many times.

The Lost Coins

HONESTY

Honesty means doing the right thing even when no one is watching.

preceptor reads aloud

DO THIS

► Read the story. Answer each question. Find the words that prove it.

ANSWER · use the passage to answer each question

1. What did Marcus find on the sidewalk?

2. What was Marcus going to do with the coins?

3. Who owned the coins?

4. How did Marcus feel after returning the coins?

PROVE IT · copy the sentence (or its number) that proves one of your answers

The Lost Coins

HONESTY

Honesty means doing the right thing even when no one is watching.

preceptor reads aloud

DO THIS

► Read the story. Answer each question. Find the words that prove it.

ANSWER · use the passage to answer each question

1. What did Marcus find on the sidewalk?

Five shiny coins.

2. What was Marcus going to do with the coins?

He was going to buy candy.

3. Who owned the coins?

Mrs. Lee owned the coins.

4. How did Marcus feel after returning the coins?

He felt happy because he helped someone and did the right thing.

PROVE IT · copy the sentence (or its number) that proves one of your answers

"He looked down and saw five shiny coins on the sidewalk."