- 1 Marcus was walking home from school. He looked down and saw five shiny coins on the sidewalk. No one was around. Marcus could keep the coins and buy candy. But he knew the coins were not his.
- 2 Marcus thought about what was right. He picked up the coins and walked to the store nearby. The store owner was behind the counter. Marcus showed her the coins. "I found these outside," he said. "Are they yours?"
- 3 The store owner smiled. "No, they are not mine. But I know who they belong to," she said. She called Mrs. Lee, who worked at the shop next door. Mrs. Lee came right away. Her face was so happy. "I lost those coins this morning!" she said. She gave Marcus a big hug and thanked him many times.
