

A Heart of Worship

Worship is more than singing a song. It is the way my heart answers the greatness of God. When I think about His power, His holiness, and His love, I want to praise Him. The Lord made the heavens, the earth, and every living thing. He is worthy of honor, thanks, and joy. I can worship Him with my voice, with my prayers, and with a life that wants to please Him.

A heart of worship is humble, thankful, and full of wonder. It looks to God with love and awe. It remembers that He is good in every season and faithful in every hour. When I lift my heart to the Lord, He helps me set my thoughts on what is true and holy. Worship brings peace, gladness, and a deeper love for the One who is worthy of all praise.
