

6 Homestead & Storage Projects

Practical natural-material builds for hauling, organizing, storing, and everyday outdoor work.

1 Sapling Bucket Yoke

A balanced yoke for carrying two buckets at once.

Found Materials:
Sturdy sapling pole, cordage or vines, two buckets.

Use:
Hauling water, feed, or garden harvests.

2 Branch Firewood Rack

Keeps firewood off the ground and dry.

Found Materials:
Long branches, forked stakes, cordage or wire.

Use:
Organizes and dries firewood for easy access.

3 Bark Mulch Scoop

A handy scoop for moving mulch, soil, or compost.

Found Materials:
Large piece of bark or flat board, bent sapling handle, cordage.

Use:
Scoops and moves loose materials around the garden.

4 Split-Branch Produce Rack

A simple rack for storing and airing garden produce.

Found Materials:
Split branches, forked stakes, cordage.

Use:
Stores vegetables, onions, and squash in a cool place.

5 Twig Washbasin Stand

A lightweight stand to hold a basin for washing.

Found Materials:
Twigs, small branches, cordage.

Use:
Supports a washbasin for handwashing or dishwashing.

6 Stone Pot Stand

A stable base to elevate pots over a fire.

Found Materials:
Flat stones of various sizes.

Use:
Raises cooking pots for better heat and airflow.