

HOMESCHOOL QUICK REFERENCE

Can I homeschool my child?

- Yes. You can teach without a teaching degree or license. Attendance generally covers children who are 6 by September 1 and under 17 by that date. Public kindergarten enrollment has special attendance rules.

Can I choose what to teach?

- Choose or create your curriculum. Provide a genuine education; the homeschool law does not prescribe subjects or state-approved materials.

Can I choose my schedule?

- You choose your learning days and hours. No minimum homeschool calendar is set.

How do I get started?

- Submit the yearly Certificate of Enrollment to your local School Attendance Officer by August 15. This is the current deadline for 2026–2027.
- If beginning midyear, complete the certificate with the attendance officer when you withdraw your child.

Is testing required?

- No required annual standardized test, portfolio review, or outside evaluation. Keeping work samples and other learning records is optional.

How Faith Schooling Makes It Easier

- Faith Readers supports K–5 reading and phonics; Grammar Garden supports language and writing; Building Number Sense provides K–5 mathematics.
- Choose literacy and math lessons that suit your child, then add other subjects. HARVEST offers a free reading placement check, and the Homeschool Rhythm Builder helps plan the week you want.

Official sources — click the underlined links

Official homeschool guidance
2026 enrollment-deadline law

Official

Reviewed October 8, 2026 • School year 2026–2027