

HOMESCHOOL QUICK REFERENCE

Can I homeschool my child?

- Yes. A parent can homeschool without a teaching degree or license. Attendance generally applies from 6 to under 18.

Can I choose what to teach?

- Choose your curriculum. Your plan covers English/language arts, math, science, and social studies, including history, geography, economics, and government. Teach age-appropriate topics; every topic need not be taught every year.

Can I choose my schedule?

- You choose the learning days and hours. Nevada sets no homeschool calendar minimum.

How do I get started?

- Submit a Notice of Intent and education plan to your resident district before starting, within 10 days of school withdrawal or 30 days of establishing residency as applicable.
- Keep the acknowledgment. No yearly renewal; refile within 30 days of a name or address change.

Is testing required?

- No required annual test, portfolio review, or progress submission. Academic records beyond your notice and plan are for your own use.

How Faith Schooling Makes It Easier

- Faith Readers supports K–5 reading and phonics; Grammar Garden supports language and writing; Building Number Sense provides K–5 mathematics.
- Include literacy and math materials in your education plan. Add science and age-appropriate history, geography, economics, and government. The Homeschool Rhythm Builder supports your own calendar.

Official sources — click the underlined links

Official homeschool guidance

Nevada notice and educational-plan law

Official

Reviewed October 8, 2026 • School year 2026–2027