

HOMESCHOOL QUICK REFERENCE

Can I homeschool my child?

- Yes. You can teach without a degree or teaching license. Current law lets you choose your materials and schedule. Attendance generally applies from 6 to under 18.

Can I choose what to teach?

- Choose or create your curriculum. Include English language arts, math, science, history, government, and social studies.

Can I choose my schedule?

- You choose your days and hours. The former 900-hour rule no longer applies.

How do I get started?

- Notify your resident superintendent within 5 calendar days of starting, withdrawing, or moving districts. Renew by August 30 each later year.
- Provide the parent and child information and assurance of required-subject instruction. The district sends acknowledgment within 14 days.

Is testing required?

- No routine annual test, evaluation, portfolio review, or progress report under current home-education law. You may keep learning records for your own planning.

How Faith Schooling Makes It Easier

- Faith Readers supports K–5 reading and phonics; Grammar Garden supports language and writing; Building Number Sense provides K–5 mathematics.
- These programs support English language arts and math. Add science, history, government, and social studies. The Homeschool Rhythm Builder helps you create your own weekly schedule.

Official sources — click the underlined links

Official homeschool guidance

Current Ohio home-education law

Reviewed October 8, 2026 • School year 2026–2027

Faith Schooling | FaithSchooling.com

Official