

HOMESCHOOL QUICK REFERENCE

Can I homeschool my child?

- Yes. Parents can teach without a teaching degree or license. Utah gives you broad curriculum and scheduling freedom. Compulsory attendance generally applies from 6 to under 18.

Can I choose what to teach?

- Choose your own subjects, curriculum, and teaching methods. You do not need state-approved textbooks or an accredited program.

Can I choose my schedule?

- You choose your learning days and hours. Utah sets no homeschool calendar minimum.

How do I get started?

- Give a one-time initial notice for each child to your resident district. The district provides a receipt within 30 days.
- No annual affidavit renewal. A qualifying notice/affidavit filed before May 7, 2025 does not need replacement just because the law changed.

Is testing required?

- No required annual state test or evaluation. Districts cannot require attendance or instruction records from your homeschool. Personal learning records are optional.
