

HOMESCHOOL QUICK REFERENCE

Can I homeschool my child?

- Yes. You can teach without a teaching degree or license. Choose your materials and teaching methods for your family's private home program. Attendance generally applies from 6 to under 18.

Can I choose what to teach?

- Choose or create your curriculum. Provide learning that builds progressively in reading, language arts, math, social studies, science, and health.

Can I choose my schedule?

- Provide at least 875 instructional hours each year. You choose the daily schedule and calendar.

How do I get started?

- Submit your yearly PI-1206 homeschool report through HOMER by October 15, or when beginning after that date. Print and keep the submitted report.
- A home program serves one family; a parent may designate another person to teach.

Is testing required?

- No state-required annual test, portfolio review, or routine grade report. You may keep an hour calendar and work samples to document learning; DPI recommends these records.

How Faith Schooling Makes It Easier

- Faith Readers supports K–5 reading and phonics; Grammar Garden supports language and writing; Building Number Sense provides K–5 mathematics.
- These programs support reading, language arts, and math. Add your own social studies, science, and health instruction. The Homeschool Rhythm Builder helps organize 875 annual hours; track actual learning time separately.

Official sources — click the underlined links

Official homeschool guidance

Wisconsin subjects and instructional hours

Reviewed October 8, 2026 • School year 2026–2027

Faith Schooling | FaithSchooling.com

Official