

HOMESCHOOL QUICK REFERENCE

Can I homeschool my child?

- Yes. You can teach or designate an instructor without a teaching license. Attendance generally starts at 7 by August 1 and continues until age 16 or tenth-grade completion, whichever comes first; early-enrollment rules may apply.

Can I choose what to teach?

- Choose your curriculum. Provide a progressive basic program in reading, writing, math, civics, history, literature, and science.

How do I get started?

- Begin the required instruction and notify your current school of withdrawal if enrolled. Annual curriculum submission to the district ended in 2025; no ordinary state homeschool registration.

Can I choose my schedule?

- You choose the learning days and hours. Ordinary homeschooling has no fixed day or hour minimum.

Is testing required?

- No required annual statewide standardized test or outside evaluation for ordinary homeschooling. Personal learning records are optional.

How Faith Schooling Makes It Easier

- Faith Readers supports K–5 reading and phonics; Grammar Garden supports language and writing; Building Number Sense provides K–5 mathematics.
- Add civics, history, science, and literature selections. The Homeschool Rhythm Builder helps create your own weekly schedule; HARVEST provides an optional reading placement check.

Other choices & helpful details

- Steamboat Legacy Scholarship accounts are optional and have separate notice, annual assessment, and spending conditions. Those conditions apply to account participants.

Official sources — click the underlined links

Official homeschool guidance

Home School Freedom Act implementation

Official

Reviewed October 8, 2026 • School year 2026–2027

Faith Schooling | FaithSchooling.com

1 / 1