Preparation: Bible, pencil and crayons. Use glue sticks and adult-supervised scissors for cutting activities. Offer oral responses or a scribe when appropriate. Artwork is a visual aid; distinguish Scripture, explanation, Apostolic interpretation and reconstruction.

Elijah on Mount Carmel

Omit slaughter, bodies and animal remains from the child artwork. The partly obscured altar is not a complete stone-count illustration; twelve comes from the verse. The water jar is a representative ancient container for the KJV barrels. Do not encourage fire reenactments or teach a ritual formula for forcing miracles. Pictures are visual reminders; species, clothing, exact shapes and small scene details are reconstructions unless the passage states them. Offer pointing, oral answers or a scribe. Supervise all cutting. Read the cited verses before using the activities.
