Preparation: Bible, pencil and crayons. Use glue sticks and adult-supervised scissors for cutting activities. Offer oral responses or a scribe when appropriate. Artwork is a visual aid; distinguish Scripture, explanation, Apostolic interpretation and reconstruction.

Sin and God's Promise

Use gentle language about disobedience, truth and God's care; do not frighten preschoolers. Genesis does not identify the fruit as an apple. The tree, leaf and scroll are reminders; the exact species and a physical scroll at the event are not asserted. Genesis 3:15 is taught as the promise pointing toward Christ, clearly distinguished from the verse's direct wording. Pictures are visual reminders; species, clothing, exact shapes and small scene details are reconstructions unless the passage states them. Offer pointing, oral answers or a scribe. Supervise all cutting. Read the cited verses before using the activities.

The man speaks of fear and nakedness and blames the woman; the woman says the serpent beguiled her. Identify the actual answers.

SSO-W03-A1012-03

Ages 10-12 | Genesis 3:1-24

Teach: Require the recorded facts before the explanation. Avoid adding unrecorded thoughts or universal patterns based on one event.

Reasoning 1: Disobedience is followed by awareness of nakedness, hiding, fear and blame. Use the recorded events without inventing private thoughts.

Reasoning 2: Enmity is announced between serpent and woman and their seed. Christian teaching understands the victorious seed in relation to Christ; the name Jesus is not directly spoken in this verse.

Ages 10-12 | Genesis 3:1-24

Objective: Connect a positive personal response with the actual teaching of the assigned passage.

Teach: Treat the scenario as a present-day application. Require a concrete action and a reference; do not present the child's plan as a biblical quotation.

Reasoning 2: God makes coats of skins and clothes them. God's provision does not cancel the recorded judgment; keep observation and explanation distinct.
