

Fantasy writing: Destiny

On the eve of every child's twelfth birthday, the child has a dream that tells them about who they will become in the future. Write a first-person fantasy narrative about the dream that you have, as well as how you feel before and after!

Your story should include:

- A beginning, climax and ending
- Descriptive language
- Detailed setting
- Dialogue
- Inner dialogue

First, plan your narrative:

Characters: Who is this story about?	Setting: When and where does this story take place?
Beginning
Middle
End
