

Identifying the setting

A setting is when and where a story takes place.

The students gather on the rug as the art teacher tells them about today's art class. They will be painting pottery.

The kids gather paint, brushes, and the clay pottery and bring it to the table. Then they paint until class is over.

They clean up, then line up at the door.

Where does this story take place?
