

Drawing characters

A character is a person or animal in a story.

Read the story. Underline the names of the characters. Draw a picture of each character in the space below.

Today is sports day at school! We get to play many different games. Ricky chooses to play basketball, but Molly wants to play soccer. Since Jody brought her racket to school, she will play tennis!

Characters: