

Using hyperbole

Beneath each sentence, write what the author is trying to express without using exaggeration.

1. Her mom is the tallest mom who ever existed on this earth.

2. That dress is the most beautiful dress that has ever been made in the world.

3. Our basketball team has the most athletic players in the galaxy.

4. I'm pretty sure we won a million games of soccer this weekend at the tournament.

Express these ideas in the form of a hyperbole.

1. My friend is nice.

2. That dog is cute.

3. We traveled for many hours.

4. This room is small.
