

Verb conjugation

Circle the letter with the best form of the verb.

- He ___ me to become a teacher.
a. inspired
b. will have inspired
- By the time you read this letter, we ___ the building.
a. left b. have left c. will have left
- The boss ___ to the store to buy the workers some coffee.
a. had gone b. will have gone
- Our house ___ by the time we move into our new house.
a. sold b. has sold c. will have sold
- The salesman ___ all the shrimp that was on the tray.
a. is eating b. has eaten c. will have been eating
- We ___ the amount of pizza we ordered this year for the party.
a. doubled b. had doubled
- By the end of the season, I ___ thirty points for my team.
a. am scoring b. have scored c. will have scored
- I can't believe he ___ the movie without me.
a. is watching b. will have been watching c. had already watched
- The principal ___ to treat all of the teachers to lunch.
a. is deciding b. decided c. will have been deciding
- The company ___ three employees in the last month.
a. has lost b. has been losing c. will have lost

