

Compare and contrast Venn diagram

Grade 3 Reading Worksheet

When we compare two things, we tell how they are alike .

When we contrast two things, we tell how they are different .

As you read these two texts, think about how the stories are alike and different.

Story #1	Story #2
Chloe was excited as she packed her soccer bag for practice. It was a warm afternoon, and she loved being outside with her team. She carefully packed her water bottle, shin guards, soccer ball and a snack for after practice. Chloe had been working hard to get better, and today she wanted to practice her passing.	Alex was excited as he packed his gym bag for basketball practice. He couldn't wait to see his teammates at the gym. He grabbed his water bottle, basketball shoes, a basketball and a snack for later. Alex had been practicing at home and wanted to get better at shooting today.
When she got to the field, Chloe joined her teammates for warm-ups. They stretched their legs, jogged around the field and practiced running fast to get ready. Chloe	At the gym, the team started with warm-ups. They stretched their arms and legs, then jogged laps around the court. Alex liked hearing the squeak of sneakers on the shiny floor. After warm-ups, Coach Reed
